MRSS India's Raj Sharma re-nominated as Managing Committee Member of the Market Research Society of India (MRSI)

Mumbai, 10th July, 2017

BSE-SME listed Majestic Research Services and Solutions Ltd chairman Raj Sharma has been re-nominated as the managing committee member and media spokesperson at the Market Research Society of India.

Expressing pleasure at his nomination, Raj Sharma, said, "As the new tax regime ushers in India, the formal economy is set to grow multi-fold that will boost the market research industry in the country. Hence the market research industry is at the most opportune time of the growth curve to leapfrog into the next level."

At the 29th annual general meeting held last week, Pravin Shekar, chairman and CEO at Krea eKnowledge was unanimously elected as the President of the non-profit autonomous market research body.

Established in January 1988, the MRSI is at the forefront of maintaining standards of excellence in the market research industry.

Welcome Mr Raj Sharma's re nomination to the Managing Committee and appointment as the media spokesperson, Sandeep Saxena - Director General MRSI said " I am very happy to see Mr Raj Sharma reappointed in this role. Raj's efforts in this area have been very valuable in increasing the visibility of the society and our activities. I am looking forward to another 2 years of working closely together"
